

PROGRAMME GUIDE

ADVANCE DIPLOMA IN ACUPUNCTURE(ADAS)

(Curriculum for Advance Diploma in Acupuncture)

Duration of course- 2 Semesters / 1 year (700hrs)

Eligibility:-+2/Pass in Certificate Course in Acupuncture

II –SEMESTER SYLLABUS

CHANNELS & MERIDIANS
HEALTHCARE PVT LTD

CHANNELS & MERIDIANS HEALTHCARE PVT LTD

41, SAMINATHAN STREET, SEKKALAI, KARAIKUDI.

MOBILE: 8489500055 /8870749194

ANCILLARY THERAPIES:

Total Papers: 05 / Total Marks: 300

Total Number of Theory Papers: 03

Max Marks: 60 Each

Total Number of Practical Papers: 02

Theory: 01

- 1) Auriculotherapy: Principles and procedures of Auriculotherapy. Anatomy of Ear. Various points' location and its treatment significance. Types of needles used in auriculotherapy. Effectiveness of Auriculotherapy.

Theory: 02

- 2) Hijamo: Principles and procedures of Hijamo. History of Hijamo. Patient preparation for Hijamo. Types of Cups used and its importance. Health conditions treated in Hijamo. Treatment protocol points for various conditions. Various types of Hijamo. Combination points categories.

Theory: 03

- 3) Sujok: Principles and procedures involved in Sujok. Hand – Foot anatomy and organ system representation. Main Correspondence system, Insect Correspondence system, Mini Insect correspondence system. Hand and foot reflexology based on sujok system. Sujok needles and treatment. Conditions treated by sujok. Seed therapy, color therapy, Magneto therapy.

Practical: 04

- 4) Electro-Acupuncture: Principles and procedures in Electro-Acupuncture. Conditions best treated in electropuncture. Precautions and care. Electro-Stimulators and couple points for treatment.

Practical: 05

- 5) Moxibution: History of Moxibution. Principles and procedures involved in Moxa treatment. Types of Moxibution. Forbidden Moxa points. Types of moxibution and its importance.